

Max Neuhaus

Our perception of space depends as much on what we hear as what we see.

Max Neuhaus is the pioneer of artistic activities with sound. A renowned interpreter of contemporary music while still in his twenties, Neuhaus went on to become the first to extend sound as a primary medium into the domain of contemporary art

Monday January 24, 2004 7:30 PM
Lecture Hall, San Francisco Art Institute, 800 Chestnut Street
Information: 42-826-294